DM AHORA! RECORDS are pleased to announce that TELMARY will showcase at WOMEX 2007 in Sevilla, Spain.

Following the successful release of her first solo album A Diario in the spring of this year, Cuban rapera and jazz poetess TELMARY will be travelling to Sevilla in October with her 5-piece band to showcase at the WOMEX trade fair.

Attended by over 2,500 delegates from over 58 countries, WOMEX will be the perfect platform for TELMARY to demonstrate her truly individual creative talent and will be the climax to a hugely successful year for the rising star of new Cuban music.

The release, to great critical acclaim, of A Diario throughout Europe in April 2007 was followed swiftly by TELMARY winning the Cuban Music Award for best rap album of the year and entry into the European World Music Charts in July.

TELMARY'S growing legion of fans throughout the world have also had plenty of opportunity to see her live this year. In addition to a 10-day tour of Japan, TELMARY has performed at prestigious festivals in Canada, such as the Montreal Jazz Festival, the Harbourfront Centre and Luminato.

TELMARY will also be heading off to Colombia in September to film the movie Alborada Carmesí, directed by Luis Hernán Reina.

TELMARY will be performing a late-night showcase SET at PAVILLION 1 on Saturday 27th October.
